PSALM AND HYMN TUNES,

Selected and Original

DESIGNED AS SUPPLEMENTARY TO THE SEVERAL COLLECTIONS OF CHURCH MUSIC IN COMMON USE.

BY LOWELL MASON.

No. 1.

Entered according to Act of Congress, in the year 1836, By MELVIN LORD, in the Clerk's Office of the District Court of Massachusetts.

Andante Larghetto.

Andante Barghettto.

1. The Lord my shepherd is; I shall be well supplied; Since he is mine, and I am his, What can I want beside? What can I want beside?

2. He leads me to the place, Where heavenly pasture grows; Where living waters gently pass, And full salvation flows, And full salva - tion flows.

Largo.

1. Ye trembling captives hear! The gospel trumpet sounds: No music more can charm the ear, Or heal your heart-felt wounds, No music more can spreads afar, And vengeance is no more, (or) heart - felt wounds. - - .

Forgiveness, love, and peace,
Glad heaven aloud proclaims;
And earth the Jubilee's release,
With eager rapture, claims.

Far, far to distant lands
The saving news shall spread;
And Jesus all his willing bands,
In glorious triumph lead.

Adagio.

1. Saviour, source of every blessing, Tune my heart to grateful lays; } 2. Teach me some melodious measure, Sung by raptured saints above;
Streams of mercy, never ceasing, Call for ceaseless songs of praise. }

Fill my soul with sacred pleasure, While I sing redeeming love.

Thou didst seek me when a stranger,
Wandering from the fold of God;
Thou, to save my soul from danger,
Didst redeem me with thy blood.

By thy hand restored, defended,
Safe through life, thus far, I'm come;
Safe, O Lord, when life is ended,
Bring me to my heavenly home.

Church Psalmody, Hymn 147.

Moderato.

My heart shall triumph in my Lord,
And bless his works—and bless his word :
Thy works of grace—how bright they shine !
How deep thy counsels—how divine !

Sure I shall share a glorious part,
When grace hath well refined my heart,
And fresh supplies of joy are shed,
Like holy oil, to cheer my head.

Then shall I see—and hear—and know
All I desired, or wished below ;
And every power find sweet employ,
In that eternal world of joy.

Church Psalmody, Ps. 92.

* From this place to the end of the tune, the Treble and Alto may change parts, the Alto singing the Treble an 8v lower than it is written. Such transpositions, when they can be made without violating the rules of counterpoint, may be often rendered effective, and they afford a pleasing variety in singing several stanzas.

BAJITH. C. M.

Andante.

1. Through endless years, thou art the same, O thou eternal God ! Ages to come shall know thy name, And tell thy works abroad, And tell thy works abroad.

2. The strong foundations of the earth Of old by thee were laid ; By thee the beauteous arch of heaven With matchless skill was made, With matchless skill was made.

The musical score consists of three staves of music. The top staff is in common time (indicated by '3/4') and G clef. The middle staff is also in common time (indicated by '3/4') and G clef. The bottom staff is in common time (indicated by '3/4') and F clef. The lyrics are integrated into the music, appearing below the notes. The first section of lyrics is:

Maestoso Moderato.

Andante Moderato.

1. *Thine earthly Sabbaths, Lord, we love; But there's a nobler rest above; To that our longing souls aspire, With cheerful hope—and strong desire.

2. No more fatigue—no more distress, Nor sin, nor death shall reach the place; No groans shall mingle with the songs, Which warble from im - mor - tal tongues.

3. No rude a - larms of raging foes, No cares to break the long repose; No midnight shade—no clouded sun—But sacred, high, e - ter - nal noon.

* Let the 1st 2d and 3d stanzas be sung by solo voices, after which, repeat the 1st stanza in chorus.

RECITANTE.

PETRA. C. M. [DIDACTIC TUNE.]

1. Faith is the brightest ev - i-dence Of things be - yond our sight; It pierces through the veil of sense, And dwells in heavenly light.

2. It sets time past in present view, Brings distant prospects home, Of things a thousand years a - go, Or thousand years to come.

3. By faith we know the world was made By God's al - migh - ty word; We know the heavens and earth shall fade, And be a - gain re - stored.

4. Abrab'm obeyed the Lord's command, From his own country driven; By faith he sought a promised land, But found his rest in heaven.

5. Thus through life's pilgrimage we stray, The promise in our eye; By faith we walk the narrow way, That leads to joys on high.

Andante.

1. To bless thy cho - sen race, In mercy, Lord, in - cline; And cause the brightness of thy face On all thy saints to shine;

2. That so thy wondrous way May through the world be known; While distant lands their homage pay, And thy sal - vation own.

1. Lord, we come before thee now; At thy feet we hum - bly bow; Oh do not our suit disdain! Shall we seek thee, Lord, in vain?

2. Lord, on thee our souls depend; In compassion now descend; Fill our hearts with thy rich grace; Tune our lips to sing thy praise.

Andante Moderato.

1. There is an hour of peaceful rest, To mourning wanderers given: There is a tear for souls distressed, A balm for every wounded breast, 'Tis

 There faith lifts up the tearless eye,
 The heart with anguish riven;
 It views the tempest passing by,
 Sees evening shadows quickly fly,
 And all serene, serene—in heaven.

There fragrant flowers immortal bloom,
 And joys supreme are given;
 There rays divine disperse the gloom;
 Beyond the dark and narrow tomb
 Appears the dawn, the dawn—of heaven.

Church Psalmody, Hy. 639.

NOTE. Sing the small notes to the first and second—and the large notes to the third and fourth stanzas.

righteousness, In which all-perfect, heavenly dress My soul shall ever shine, My soul shall ev - er shine, My soul shall ev - - - er shine.

In notes almost divine.

1. Thou lovely source of true delight, Whom I unseen a - dore; Unveil thy beauties to my sight, That I may love thee more.

3. —'Tis here, whene'er my comforts droop, And sins and sorrows rise, Thy love, with cheering beams of hope, My fainting heart supplies.

5. Jesus, my Lord, my life, my light, <Oh! come with blissful ray; Break through the gloomy shades of night, And chase my fears a - way.

2. Thy glory o'er cre-a-tion shines; But in thy sacred word I read, in fairer, brighter lines, >My bleeding, dy-ing Lord.

4. But ah! too soon the pleasing scene Is clouded o'er with pain; My gloomy fears rise dark between, And I a - gain complain.

6. Then shall my soul with raptne trace The wonders of thy love: Then shall I see thy glorious face In endless joy above.

ELAM. L. M.

Largo.

1. When at this distance, Lord we trace the various glories of thy face, What transport pours o'er all our breast, And charms our cares and woes to rest !

2. Away, ye dreams of mortal joy! Raptures divine my thoughts employ; I see the King of glory shine; I feel his love—and call him mine.

3. Yet still, O Lord, my waiting eyes To nobler visions long to rise; That grand assembly would I join, Where all thy saints around thee shine.

No. 22.

ARABIA. L. M.

Largo.

1. Indulgent Lord, thy goodness reigns Through all the wide, celest - tial plains ; And thence its streams redundant flow, And cheer th' abodes of men below.

3. O give to every human heart To taste and feel how good thou art ! With grateful love and holy fear, To know how blest thy chil - dren are.

1. Again the Lord of life and light Awakes the kindling ray; Dispels the darkness of the night, And pours increasing day.

3. —This day be grateful homage paid, And loud ho-sannas sung; Let gladness dwell in ev-ery heart, And praise on ev-ery tongue.

2. Oh! what a night was that, which wrapt A sinful world in gloom! Oh! what a Sun, which broke, this day, Triumphant from the tomb!

4. Ten thousand thousand lips shall join To hail this welcome morn, Which scatters blessings from its wing To nations yet unborn.

Larghetto.

1. Rock of ages! cleft for me, Let me hide myself in thee; } Be of fear and sin the care; Save from wrath, and make me pure.
 Let the water and the blood, From thy side, a healing flood, }
 2. Should my tears for - ev - er flow, Should my zeal no languor know, } In my hand no price I bring, Simply To thy cross I cling.
 This for sin could not atone; Thou must save, and thou alone:
 3. While I draw this fleeting breath, When mine eyelids close in death, } Rock of ages cleft for me, Let me hide my - self in thee.
 When I rise to worlds unknown, And behold thee on thy throne, }

Andante.

1. All ye nations, praise the Lord, All ye lands, your voices raise; Heaven and earth, with loud accord, Praise the Lord, for - ev - er praise.

2. For his truth and mercy stand, Past, and pres - ent, and to be, Like the years of his right hand, Like his own e - ter - ni - ty.

Andante.

1. When I can read my ti - tie clear, To mansions in the skies, I bid farewell to eve - ry fear, And wipe my weeping eyes, And wipe my weeping eyes.

4. There shall I bathe my weary soul In seas of heavenly rest; And not a wave of trouble roll^{læn} Across my peaceful breast, Across my peaceful breast.

Largo.

2. Father! Source of all com - passion! Pure, unhounded grace is thine: Hail the God of our salvation! Praise him for his love divine.

4. For ten thousand blessings given, For the hope of future joy, Sound his praise through earth and heaven, Sound Jehovah's praise on high.

No. 30.

HAVILAH. L. M.

1. O all ye people, shout and sing Ho - san - nas to your heavenly King; Where'er the sun's bright glories shine, Ye nations, praise his name divine.

2. High on his ev - er - lasting throne, He reigns al - mighty and alone; Yet we, on earth, with angels share From age to age, from shore to shore.

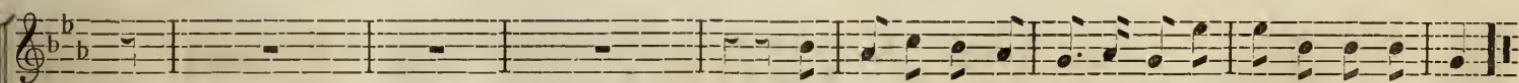

Slow.

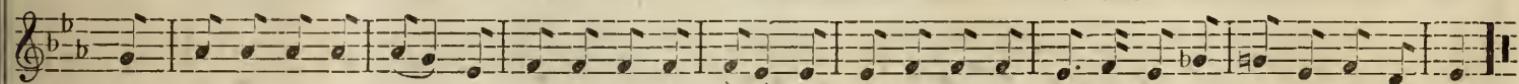

1. dol. The Lord my shepherd is; I shall be well supplied; Since he is mine, and I am his, What can I want beside?

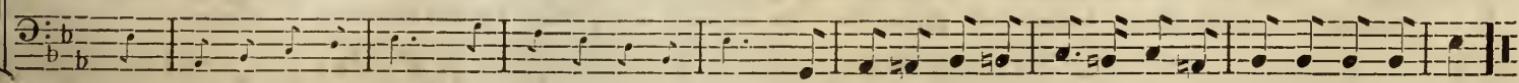

3. —If e'er I go as - tray, He doth my soul re - claim; And guides me in his own right way, For his most ho - ly name.

2. He leads me to the place, Where heavenly pasture grows, Where living waters gently pass, f And full sal - vation flows.

4. While he affords his aid, I cannot yield to fear; Though I should walk through death's dark shade, My shepherd's with me there.

1. The spacious firmament on high, With all the hine e - thereal sky, And spangled heavens, a shining frame, Their great Ori - nal proclaim.

3. *p*Soon as the evening shades prevail, The moon takes np the wondrous tale, And nightly, to the listening earth, Repeats the story of her birth;

5. *p*What ! though in solemn silence all Move round this dark terrestrial hall, What ! though no real voice, or sound Amid their radiant orbs he sound, 2d ending.

2. Th'unworned sun, from day to day, Does his Creator's power display, And puhishes to every land The work of an al - mighty hand.

4. —While all the stars that round her burn, And all the planets, in their tnrn, *mf*Confirm the tidings, as they roll, *f*And spread the truth from pole to pole.

6. —In reason's ear they all rejoice, < And utter forth a glorions voice ; *f*For ever singing, as they shine, " The hand that made us is Divine."

Larghetto. Sostenuto.

1. Come, O my soul, in sa - cred lays, Attempt thy great Crea - tor's praise : But, oh, what tongue cau speak his fame ! What mortal verse can reach the theme !

4. f Raised ou devotion's lof - - ty wing, Do thou, my soul, his glories sing ; And let his praise employ thy tongue, Till listening worlds shall join the song !

4. mf Hail, great Immanuel, all di - vine ! In thee thy Father's glories shine ; f Thy glorious name shall be adored, And every tongue confess thee Lord.

1. The heavens declare thy glory, Lord, in every star thy wisdom shines ; But when our eyes behold thy word, We read thy name in fairer lines.

3. Sun, moon, and stars, convey thy praise Round all the earth, and never stand ; So when thy truth began its race, It touched and glanced on every land.

5. —Great Sun of Righteousness, arise ! Oh bless the world with heavenly light ! Thy gospel makes the simple wise ; Thy laws are pure, thy judgments right.

2. The rolling sun, the changing light, And nights, and days, thy power confess ; But that blest volume thou hast writ Reveals thy justice and thy grace.

4. mf Nor shall thy spreading gospel rest, Till through the world thy truth has run ; 'Till Christ has all the nations blest, Which see the light, or feel the sun.

6. Thy noblest wonders here we view, In souls renewed and sins forgiven : aff Lord, cleanse my sins, my soul renew, mf And make thy word my guide to heaven.

1. To bless thy chosen race, In mercy, Lord, incline; And cause the brightness of thy face On all thy saints to shine;

Andante.

Ch. Ps. Ps. 148, 2d Pt.

A musical score for three voices (Soprano, Alto, Bass) in common time, 2/4 or 4/4. The key signature is one flat. The vocal parts are arranged in three staves. The lyrics are as follows:

1. Let every creature join To praise th'e-ternal God; Ye heavenly hosts, the song be - gin, And sound his name a - broad.
2. Thou sun, with golden beams, And moon, with pa - ler rays; Ye starry lights, ye twinkling flames, Shine to your Maker's praise.
3. He built those worlds above, And fixed their wondrous frame: By his command they stand or move, And ever speak his name.
4. By all his works above, His honors be expressed; But saints, who taste his saving love, Should sing his praises best.

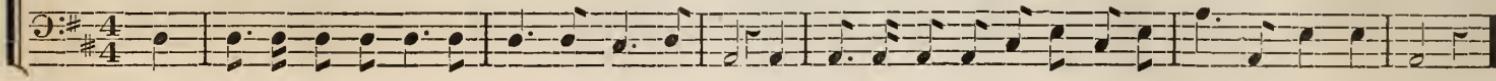

With energy.

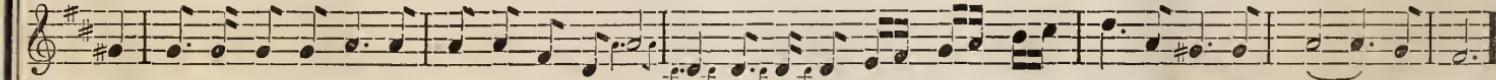

1. The Lord ascends on bigh, And asks to rule the earth; The merit of his blood he pleads, And pleads his heavenly birth.

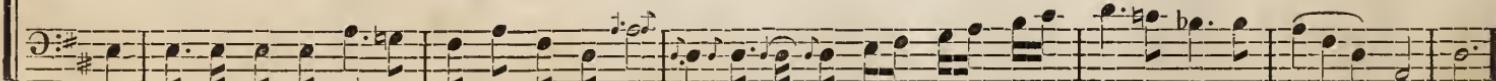

3.—The nations that rebel Must feel his i - ron rod: f He'll vin - dicate tbose honors well, Which he received from God.

2. He asks, and God bestows A large in - ber - itance: f Far as the world's re - mo - test ends, His kingdom shall advance.

4. mp Be wise, ye rulers, now, And worship at his throne: With trembling joy, -- ye peo - ple, bow f To God's ex - alt - ed Son.

NOTE.—Sing the large notes to the 2d, and the small notes to the 4th stanza.

5. mp If once his wrath a - rise, Ye perish on the place: f But blessed is the soul that flies, that flies For refuge to his grace. If once his wrath a - rise, Ye perish, Ye perish on the place: f But blessed is the soul that flies For refuge, that flies For refuge to his grace.

1. p How pleasant, how di - vinely fair, O Lord of hosts, thy dwellings are ; With long desire my spirit faints, To meet th'assemblies of thy saints.

3. mf Blest are the saints, who sit on high, Around thy throne, above the sky ; Thy brightest glories shine above, And all their work is praise and love.

5. Blest are the men, whose hearts are set To find the way to Zion's gate : f God is their strength, and through the road They lean np - on their helper, God.

2. My flesh would rest in thine abode : My panting heart cries out for God: My God! my King! why should I be So far from all my joys - - - and thee !

4. Blest are the souls, who find a place Within the tem - ple of thy grace; There they behold thy gentler rays, And seek thy face, and learn - - thy praise.

6. Cheerful they walk with growing strength, Till all shall meet • in heaven at length : [Omit, and pass to 2d ending.]

TALMON. S. M. [DOUBLE.]

Ch. Ps. Hy. 342.

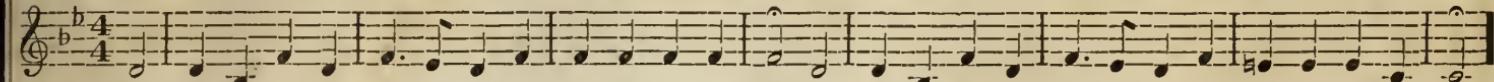

The musical score consists of six staves of music in common time, treble clef, and G major. The key signature changes from G major to F# major (one sharp) at the beginning of the third staff. The tempo is indicated as 'S. M.' (Slow and Melancholy). The dynamic markings include 'p' (piano), 'cres.' (crescendo), 'dim.' (diminuendo), and 'softens' above the third staff. The lyrics are as follows:

1. And shall I sit a - lone, Oppressed with grief and fear? To God, my Father, make my moan, And he refuse to hear?
 2. If he my Father be, His pi - ty he will show; From cru - el bondage set me free, And inward peace be - stow.
 3. If still he silence keep, 'Tis bnt my faith to try ; He knows and feels whene'er I weep, And softens every sigh!
 4. Then will I humbly wait, Nor once indulge des - pair; My sins are great, but not so great As his compassions are.

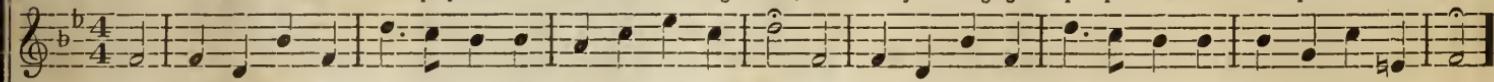

Steady, and equal time, and not too quick.

1. Where shall the man be found, That fears t'offend his God, That loves the gospel's joy - ful sound, And trembles at the rod?

2. The Lord shall make him known The secrets of his heart, The wonders of his covenant show, And all his love im - part.

3. The dealings of his power Are truth and mer - ey still, With such as keep his covenant sure, And love to do his will.

4. Their souls shall dwell at ease Be - fore their Maker's face, Their seed shall taste the prom - i - ses In their exten - sive grace,

LARGO. m

1. Lord, through the dubious path of life Thy feeble ser - vant guide! Sup - ported by thy powerful arm, My footsteps shall not slide.

DIM. p-m f m DIM.

3. To thee, O my un - err - ing Guide! I would my - self re - sign; In all my ways ac - knowledge thee, And form my will to thine.

DIM. p-m f m DIM.

p m p CRES. POCO A POCO. f 2D ENDING. f p

Let others, swelled with empty pride, Of wisdom make their boasts; My wisdom and my strength must come From thee, the Lord of hosts.

CRES. POCO A POCO. f f p

p m p CRES. POCO A POCO. f f p

Thus shall each blessing of thy hand Be doubly sweet to me; In all my griefs I still shall [omit and pass to the 2d ending.] have A refuge, Lord, in thee.
